Thresholds Website Privacy Statement

Thresholds has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for this website.

Our site's registration form requires users to give us contact information, including their name and email address. We use donor contact information from the registration form to send the user our electronic communications and other information about Thresholds. The donor's contact information is also used to contact the user when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings by following the opt-out link included in all electronic communications.

We will not give or sell your email address to other organizations or businesses. The only exception to this is if another nonprofit organization assumes responsibility of our organization and takes control over our donor list. If we partner with another nonprofit organization, we may send joint communications.

This site contains links to other websites. Our website, www.thresholds.org, and Thresholds itself, is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such websites.

Our site uses donation forms from donors to support our program. We collect the donor's contact information (including their email address) when completing the donation. Contact information from the order form is used to send acknowledgements, donation receipt letters, and information about Thresholds to our donors. The donor's contact information is also used to get in touch with them when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings by following the opt-out link included in all electronic communications. Credit card information that is collected is used to process your donation, and is not kept on file for any future use. Your credit card information is processed using licensed, secure software.

Anti-Spam Policy

We do not send emails to people that do not have a relationship with our organization. A relationship with our organization can start when a user opts into our mailing lists on one of our sites or partner sites, makes a donation to one of our programs, requests in writing or verbally to be added to the mailing list, purchases an event or raffle ticket, or registers or attends an event hosted by Thresholds or one of our partners.
